

Kuier@TheCastle this February: The month of love meets the love of local!

Celebrate local creativity and one year of Kuier@TheCastle on 22 February 2025, 10am – 4pm

This February, celebrate the month of love by falling for local design, art, and creativity at Kuier@TheCastle! Returning on Saturday, 22 February 2025, the event marks its one-year anniversary, bringing together the best of Cape Town's artisans, culture, and community. Hosted by the Craft + Design Institute (CDI) in collaboration with the historic Castle of Good Hope, this monthly market has become the city's favourite family-friendly creative destination.

A Celebration of loving local

Kuier@TheCastle invites you to experience a day filled with art, culture, and community spirit. Celebrate the love for Cape Town's creative talent as you explore a vibrant marketplace showcasing handcrafted homeware, fashion, art, and accessories by some of the city's most talented artisans.

Immerse yourself in the festive atmosphere with live music, mouthwatering local food, and creative workshops for all ages designed to spark joy and connection. It's a day dedicated to loving local and supporting the creative heart of Cape Town.

Family fun, creativity, and history

- Workshops for all ages: The Creative Corner will host themed workshops throughout the day, offering visitors a chance to craft their own keepsakes. Kids can dive into creative activities designed especially for them, ensuring smiles all around.
- Explore the Castle: Beyond the market, visitors can step into history with access to the Castle of Good Hope's world-class museums and exhibitions.

Accessible for everyone, free parking

Kuier@TheCastle ensures an affordable and family-friendly experience with discounted entry fees:

- Adults: R30
- Children & Pensioners: R15
- Kids under 7: Free

Safe parking is available within the Castle grounds via the Darling Street entrance, so you can relax and enjoy the day.

Join the Love Local celebration!

As Cape Town's biggest family-friendly market and creative experience, Kuier@TheCastle promises a day to remember. Celebrate love, creativity, and community with us on Saturday, 22 February 2025.
